

Savannah Restaurant Suggestions

1540 Room $$ 15 East Liberty Street; 912 443 2022; www.1540room.com

The menu at 1540 Room changes continuously, this is truly a local small farm driven experience. Explore a world accented with smoke, spice and delight. A lively dining room with an open kitchen features Lowcountry sourced, farm-to-table dishes, including a unique collection of wines.

Six Pence Pub $$ 245 Bull Street; 912-233-3151; www.sixpencepub.com

Offers sandwiches, soups, and hearty fare served in an old English Pub atmosphere. Traditional English-style public house with great outdoor seating. Six Pence Pub has a lively bar with an extensive array of beer, wines and liquor. Located across the street from the DeSoto. Open 7 days a week 11am -11pm

The Public Kitchen & Bar $$ 1 West Liberty Street; 912-200-4045; www.thepublickitchen.com

Located next to the DeSoto and opened September 2012 by the same owners as Local11Ten. Offers a roof top patio and is pet-friendly but with limited seating. Menu includes a variety of sandwiches, salads, and gourmet burgers for lunch as well as fish, steak, chicken and pastas for dinner. Open Monday & Tuesday 5pm-10pm; Wednesday-Sunday 11am-3:30pm & 4:30pm-10pm

Fire Street Food $ 13 East Perry Street; 912-234-7776

Located across from the DeSoto's front doors on Chippewa Square. Offers a modern atmosphere with great comfort food including sushi, Kobe burgers, sandwiches, salads and much more. Open 11am-3pm & 5pm-10pm Monday-Friday; 12pm-10pm Saturday & Sunday

Gryphon $$ 337 Bull Street; 912-525-5880

Gryphon, housed in an adapted turn-of-the-century pharmacy, is the epitome of Southern hospitality, elegance, and charm. Serves tea, coffee, sodas and light meals. Students, as well as locals and tourists, relax in the tea room while admiring the antique furnishings. Fourteen original stained glass windows with mortar and pestle motif convey the original purpose of the shop. Gryphon is located directly behind the DeSoto on Madison Square. Open 11am-6pm Thursday, Friday & Saturday; 9am-4pm on Sunday.

J. Christopher's $ 122 East Liberty Street; 912-236-7494; www.jchristophers.com

J. Christopher's was founded on a very simple idea: to provide cheerful, relaxing neighborhood eateries serving all your traditional breakfast, brunch, and lunch favorites. We are committed to making your outing an enjoyable one whether for a meeting with business associates or visiting with friends and family. From our bright, contemporary atmosphere to the friendly staff, we offer you the perfect spot for a pleasant start to your day. Located across the street from the DeSoto. Open Daily 7am-2pm

Hitch $$ 300 Drayton Street; (912) 239-6970; www.hitch.com

Sister Restaurant to Trelor Park – Trelor Park is built on the motto “Quality over Quantity”. In everything we do, Quality comes first. Whether you're talking about our seasonal cocktails, our craft beer, or our local fare, everything is done with quality in mind. Trelor Park is a unique space that offers a fun and unique food/cocktail/beer menu day and night. Whether you're in the mood for a nice smooth cocktail at our dining room cocktail bar or a cool crisp draft beer in our outside beer garden, Trelor park can fit your mood. This unique classic restaurant is full of great music and great energy. Open 11am-12am Monday-Friday; Saturday & Sunday 10am-12am

McDonough's Restaurant & Tavern $ 21 East McDonough's Street; 912-233-6136

www.mcdonoughsofsavannah.com Open since 1987 McDonough's Restaurant and Lounge, located on McDonough Street across from the Savannah Theatre and just 1 block from the DeSoto, is definitely a local's hangout. It combines offbeat locals and a steady tourist crown, and also mixes a traditional Irish pub with a more modern karaoke bar (consistently voted best in the city). Open 10am -3am Daily

Crystal Beer Parlor $ 301 West Jones Street; 912-349-1000; www.crystalbeerparlor.com

Established in 1933, experience one of Savannah's oldest and best loved restaurants, located in the heart of the historic district on the corner of Jones and Jefferson and less than 3 blocks from the DeSoto. Relax in old-fashioned high-back leather booths and enjoy the freshest seafood and coldest beer in town. Don't miss the homemade cornbread, crab stew, sirloin burgers, thick cut fries, and stone cooked pizza. Open 11am-9pm Tuesday-Saturday

Clary's Café $ 404 Abercorn Street; 912-233-0402

Where Savannahians have been enjoying food and lively conversation since 1903. American soul food serving breakfast all day and lunch. Enjoy their famous crab cakes benedict and stuffed rench toast. Casual dining with prices ranging $3.95-$11. Open 8am-2pm Daily. Located two blocks from the DeSoto.

Gallery Espresso $ 234 Bull Street; 912-233-5348; www.galleryespresso.com

Oldest coffee house in Savannah serving gourmet European coffee, tea, baked goods, local desserts, and lunch. Wireless Internet and pet friendly. Open 7:30am-8pm Monday- Thursday; 7:30am-9pm Friday-Sunday. Located 1 block from the DeSoto on Chippewa Square.

Parker's Market $ 222 Drayton Street; 912-233-1000; www.parkersav.com

Historic Savannah's 24-hour gourmet grocery store. Like a European grocery, Parker's Market surprises with its quirkiness, variety and charm. Who would expect a gas station to be rated "Best Gourmet Food" 3 years running? Where else would you find homemade food, imported cheeses, fine wine, fresh flowers, and specialty coffees—all when you need them? Stop by Parker's Market Urban Gourmet for a taste of upscale contemporary living—a true Savannah experience. Located one block from the DeSoto.

Circa 1875 $$ 48 Whitaker Street; 912-443-1875; www.circa1875.com

A Parisian bistro, where one can enjoy delicious French cuisine served with excellence and flair in an authentic French bistro setting. Dinner will be served in the pub, dining room, and wine cellar. Reservations are highly recommended. 5pm-12am Monday- Thursday; 5pm-1am Friday & Saturday

Local 11 Ten $$ 1110 Bull Street; 912-790-9000; www.local11ten.com

The menu at Local 11 Ten is seasonally-driven and continually changes, reflecting the availability of product and the chef's vision for the given season and day. They earnestly strive to showcase our area's freshest and finest on a daily basis: from Sapelo Island clams and soft-shell crabs caught off our Georgia coast to loquats and figs grown right down the street. While "southern food" often conjures up images of fried chicken and collard greens, Local's cuisine is in fact Southern by definition, as they cook food grown as close to home as possible. The bounty of our region is diverse and offers substantial considerations for the creative culinary mind. Dinner: 5:30pm-9pm Wednesday-Sunday. Located on Bull Street behind Forsyth Park.

Alligator Soul $$ 114 Barnard Street; 912-232-7899; www.alligatorsoul.com

The owners win guests over with their love of extraordinary Southern Cuisine. This is an upscale restaurant with much to offer. The menu changes quarterly which keeps everyone returning. The average entrée ranges from $24-$36 and dress attire is casual. The bar area and lounge adds a relaxing atmosphere. Open 5pm -10pm Monday-Saturday

Garibaldi's $$ 315 West Congress Street; 912-232-7118; www.garibaldisavannah.com

Regional Italian Cuisine with a Southern touch. The setting is beautiful, located in what was once the grand entry room of an 1871 Fire Station, complete with the original pressed tin ceiling. A very romantic and festive atmosphere. Dress is casual. Groups and private parties are welcome for up to 120 people. Open 5-9:30pm Tuesday-Saturday

Olde Pink House $$$ 23 Abercorn Street; 912-232-4286

Focusing on an American cuisine where patrons tend to favor seafood, this is an upscale restaurant. Expect the average entrée to cost over $50. Dress attire is casual. The restaurant has authentic and elegant décor with lighting by candles, linen tablecloths and high ceilings. The live piano adds to the ambience. Reservations are required, children are welcome, and valet parking is available. Open 11am-2:30pm Tuesday-Saturday; 5pm-10pm Daily

17 Hundred 90 $$ 307 East President Street; 912-236-7122; www.17hundred90.com

Southern American and Continental Cuisine. The restaurant has a charming atmosphere. Gourmet Magazine has called the dining rooms "Savannah's most elegant." The restaurant is tastefully decorated in old southern tradition from the perfectly restored fireplaces to the brick floors throughout. Dress attire is casual or dressy, no jacket required for men. 5pm-8:30 Daily

Elizabeth on 37th $$$ 105 East 37th Street; 912-236-5547; www.elizabethon37th.net

Southern hospitality, fine coastal cuisine, and well-chosen wines in a comfortable, elegant 1900 mansion have made Elizabeth on 37th a favorite destination in Savannah for 24 years. Jacket and tie are required and entrees start at $51 and up. The restaurant has four dining rooms with seating for 80 people. Table talk is no problem here, noise level is not obtrusive. They have a superb wine list with vintage options. Reservations are suggested and children are welcome. 6pm-9pm Daily.

Husk $$$ 12 West Oglethorpe husksavannah.com

Much like the décor that inhabits this historic, late 19th Century home, the food is modern in style and interpretation. Starting with a larder of ingredients indigenous to this coastal region. The restaurant is as casual as it is chic, evoking a way of life centered on seasonality and the grand traditions of Savannah life. Menu changes frequently. Dinner only.

Jazz'd Tapas Bar $ 52 Barnard Street; 912-236-7777; www.jazzdsavannah.com

A sultry underground hot spot unique to anything else in Savannah. Step into this spacious below-street-level gathering place for their special martini at their sleek bar or join friends at the table and dine from a selection of eclectic Americanized Tapas. Features live entertainment 6 days a week; blues, swing, jazz, or classical. Open 4pm-9pm Wednesday, Thursday & Sunday; 4pm-11pm Friday & Saturday.

Vault $$ 2112 Bull Street; www.thevaultkitchen.com

Located in what used to be a local bank in the Starland District of Savannah, with an everyday, every occasion type dining experience. The interior features reused materials from the former bank, and you may dine in the vault if desire. Chic Asian fusion spot service bites and drinks. Serving lunch and dinner.